Hurlers do Double

Slaughtneil U14 Hurlers made it 5 Derry Championship titles in a row with a win over a spirited Kevin Lynch's side at Celtic Park on Saturday. Cormac O Doherty got the scoring under way with a converted free. Both sides battled hard with several great scores. With half-time looming Keelan Feeny received a pass from Cormac and converted expertly to the net to send the sides in at the interval Slaughtneil 1-06 Kevin Lynch's 0-04.

The Emmet's came out flying and Keelan Feeny had the ball in the net after two minutes for his second of the day. Kevin Lynch's pointed twice with the gap opening before Séan Cassidy cracked over a point from a ground stroke. The Emmet's then closed the game down with Francis McEldowney clearing the ball well constantly it was too little too late for Dungiven who were out of time and victory went to the South Derry team, Slaughtneil 2-09 Kevin Lynch's 1-06

The second game of the double header brought together two sides that had produced one of the best underage hurling games in Derry in recent years in the U16 final two years ago. The Dungiven outfit came out flying and pointed before a mix up in the defence gifted them a goal. Adding a further free left the North Derry side five up after three minutes. Slaughtneil worked hard and by half time the score read Slaughtneil 2-07 Kevin Lynch's 1-07

Kevin Lynch's came out fighting and scored immediately followed by a free. Sé was on fire and blasted home from close range after great work by Joe O Loughlin. Before long the Emmets were dominating and the game finished Slaughtneil 6-13 Kevin Lynch's 1-12.
